The Song of the Cradle.

Bye, bye! Hope rises high:
There's a sweet little cradle hung up in the sky;
A dear little life that is coming to bless;
Two soft chubby hands that will pat and caress;
A pure little soul winging down from above;
A darling to care for, a baby to love.

One of the grandest agencies which enlightened Science has discovered to relieve motherhood from excessive suffering is the "Favorite Prescription" devised by Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y.

This wonderful "Prescription" imbues the entire nervous system with natural, healthy vitality; gives elastic vigor to the delicate organism specially concerned in motherhood, and makes the coming of baby entirely free from danger and almost free from pain.

"I wish to state that I have used Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription with very good results," writes Mrs. Katie M. Annis, of Hudson, New Hampshire. "Had been in poor health for over four years and had been twice in the hospital. My husband brought some of your 'Favorite Prescription,' and it has carried me easily through my last two confinements. We are now blessed with two healthy children, and I am sure your medicine has done me more good than all the other treatment I have ever received."

BAD HEADACHES generally arise from bad stomachs. Foul breath, bitter taste, coated tongue, sour eructations or belching of gas, are common symptoms though not all present in every case. To cure, take small doses, only one or two each day, of old Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by him over 40 years ago. One or two a laxative, three or four cathartic.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Irritation

of the throat, sore and swollen tonsils, loss of voice, and other throat troubles should never be neglected. These ailments quickly work down to the lungs, and often end in consumption or pneumonia.

HAMLINS

used as a gargle, and externally on the throat, is a marvelous remedy for these painful and dangerous disorders, and effects relief and cure after everything else has failed.

Says Henry Wade, of Harlin, Mo.: "I am under obligations to you for the great good which Hamlins Wizard Oil did my wife. She suffered from Throat Trouble for a year, and though she doctored and doctored, nothing did her any good, until she tried Hamlins Wizard Oil." Price 50c and $1.00.

Found Man Under Her Bed.

For ten years it has been the habit of Mrs. Joseph McKenzie, of Ansonia, Conn., to wind her clock and to peep under her bed for burglars before retiring at night.

She looked under the bed as usual the other night and saw a pair of boots. She thought at first they were her husband's, but, to make sure, she tried to drag them out. Then she discovered it was the burglar for whom she had been looking so long.

The shock was to much for her. She screamed for help. The burglar was so wedged he could not move, nor did he try. This frightened Mrs. McKenzie more. She dashed wildly about the room, so excited that she mistook a window for a door and jumped out. Her bedroom is on the third floor of the house and she fell to the lawn beneath the window. Luckily her fall was broken by bushes, and she arose thinking not of her hurts, but of the burglar. She dashed down the street to the police station.

"I have found a man under my bed," she cried to the sergeant.

All the policemen in the neighborhood were summoned and Mrs. McKenzie led them to her home. They surrounded it, little expecting they had caught the intruder. As they drew in the circle a man appeared at the front door. He was called upon to halt, and he tried to break through the line of police, but they captured him and took him to the police station. He was covered with feathers from the bed tick and with dust, so there was little doubt that he was the man who hid under the bed. Furthermore, Mrs. McKenzie identified him by his shoes.

He said he was Michael Burke, from Lewiston, Me. He was sent to the county jail at New Haven, where he will be kept over Christmas.

Embezzler Surrenders.

Henry M. Allen, an employee of the government printing office at Washington, who, after his disappearance from that city on Wednesday last, wrote a letter to his wife, in which he stated that he intended to commit suicide and that his body would be found "among the hills of Abingdon," north of Philadelphia, surrender himself yesterday to the police at the Philadelphia City Hall.

He told a story of mental torture, the result, he declared, of peculations amounting to $2,200, of which he had been guilty as treasurer of the Printers' Beneficial Association, an organization of employees of the government printing office. Fearing detection, he said, he had fled from Washington with the intention of ending his life.

He decided "to return to the hills of Abingdon," where he had been born and had spent his boyhood, to commit suicide. At a drug store in Abingdon he spent 10 cents, all the money he had, for laudanum, and then hastened to a hill between Abingdon and Willow Grove. There he swallowed the laudanum, only to recover a few hours later to find that the poison had acted only as a sleeping potion, his ignorance of it having prevented him from taking enough to be fatal.

He walked to Philadelphia, but it was not until yesterday that he summoned enough courage to give himself up to the police. With his clothing torn and his haggard face covered with nearly a week's growth of beard, Allen presented a pitiful aspect. He says he is willing to return to Washington.

Dynamite in Rectory.

The rectory of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, in Middletown, N. Y., narrowly escaped destruction Saturday by dynamite. Very Rev. Dean J. P. McClancey and Rev. Father M. J. Shine were in the rectory at the time, and would certainly have been killed but for timely discovery of the explosive. Workmen were engaged in installing a furnace in the cellar of the rectory. The furnace had just been receive from the factory, placed in position and the workmen were in the act of putting the 500-pound jacket in place, when one of the men looked into the furnace to see if everything was clear. Right in the place where the jacket would have fallen he found a large stick of dynamite. The dynamite was removed to a safe place, the workmen being so badly frightened that they quit work immediately for the day. Whether the dynamite was in the furnace when it left the factory and stood the jar of being loaded and unloaded from the wagon to car several times without exploding, or whether it was placed there after it reached the rectory for the purpose of destroying the house and killing its occupants is not known, but an effort is being made to find out where it came from.

Herb W. Edwards Injured.

Herb W. Edwards, of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. I feel that this bottle of Pain Balm saved me several days' time, to say nothing of the suffering." This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Cure For The Blues

ONE MEDICINE THAT HAS NEVER FAILED

Health Fully Restored and the Joy of Life Regained

When a cheerful, brave, light-hearted woman is suddenly plunged into that perfection of misery, the BLUES, it is a sad picture. It is usually this way: She has been feeling "out of sorts" for some time; head has ached and back also; has slept poorly, been quite nervous, and nearly fainted once or twice; head dizzy, and heart-beats very fast; then that bearing-down feeling, and during her menstrual period she is exceedingly despondent. Nothing pleases her. Her doctor says: "Cheer up: you have dyspepsia; you will be all right soon."

But she doesn't get "all right," and hope vanishes; then come the brooding, morbid, melancholy, everlasting BLUES.

Don't wait until your sufferings have driven you to despair, with your nerves all shattered and your courage gone, but take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. See what it did for Mrs. Rosa Adams, of 819 12th Street, Louisville, Ky., niece of the late General Roger Hanson, C.S.A. She writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I cannot tell you with pen and ink what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered with female troubles, extreme lassitude, 'the blues,' nervousness and that all-gone feeling. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it not only cured my female derangement, but it has restored me to perfect health and strength. The buoyancy of my younger days has returned, and I do not suffer any longer with despondency, as I did before. I consider Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a boon to sick and suffering women."

If you have some derangement of the female organism write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice.

Lamentation of London Jews.

Pathetic scenes were witnessed last night at a gathering of 10,000 Jews of the East End of London in the great assembly hall at Mile End, where a memorial service was held for the Jews recently killed in Russia. The hall was draped in black, and the majority of those in the audience wore emblems of mourning. At the chanting of the fifth chapter of Lamentations almost all present burst into tears and mournful wailing. Rabbi Schwewzik in his sermon made an eloquent and touching appeal to Christians to come to the help of the Jews, who, he said, for 2,000 years had vainly protested against persecution and could hope for nothing unless the Christians, out of their justice and charity, endeavored to procure for them justice and freedom. In conclusion he suggested that all Jews go into deep mourning for a month and to vote the proceeds of their self denial to the relief of their fellow-sufferers in Russia.

Romeo Uses Gun.

Robert Simpson, a 19-year-old Romeo with melodramatic methods of wooing, was fined $25 at St. Louis, Mo., Friday for carrying a concealed weapon. The Juliet in the case is Miss Julia Fornoff, 18 years old. The two have been engaged for a year, and were to have been married Thanksgiving Day. Since their engagemeut it has been the custom of Simpson to wait for Miss Fornoff every evening and accompany her home. Wednesday evening, when he arrived at the trysting place, he was horrified to see his intended boarding a street car with another youth. Leaping on the car he put the weapon to her head, and told the girl that if she did not go with him he would pull the trigger. She went.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and save his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, NOV. 13, 1905.

THE BOARD OF VISITORS of the Virginia Military Institute after a session of several days' duration at Lexington, Virginia, adjourned at twelve o'clock Saturday night. During this session a thorough and sweeping investigation was made of the food conditions now existing, and which have prevailed at the Institute for the several years last past, a stenographic report of which was made and which will be printed in pamphlet form and accessible to all who desire to see the same. It embodies written reports by the Superintendent, a board of officers of the Institute, and a committee of representative citizens of Lexington, and disinterested individuals who have eaten at the mess hall of the Institute, and made investigation and examination of the conditions there. It also contains the evidence of the Jactical and other officers and professors of the Institute, and of cadets who were examined upon the subject.

A resolution was adopted by the board providing for the employment of a steward to be especially charged with the duty of seeing to the preparation and service of the food provided for the cadets.

It is the endeavor at the Institue to inculcate habits of neatness, economy, regularity and simplicity of life, and above all, THE BASIC FEATURE OF MILITARY DISCIPLINE REQUIRING THE SURRENDER OF INDIVIDUAL WILL AND OBEDIENCE TO DULY CONSTITUTED AUTHORITY. These cardinal virtues instilled in the mind of the youth, and becoming a part of this very life, during his four years course at the Institute, insure a golden harvest, exerting an influence upon his whole future career, for which he is ever afterwards grateful.

The third class had, before the meeting of the Board, presented to the authorities a written communication containing the statement that its members had taken a pledge to resign from the Institute if an improvement in the food conditions was not made by a specified date. This constituted a combination and organization upon the part of those participating therein subversive of discipline, and in direct violation of article one hundred and twenty-three of the regulations prescribed for the government and conduct of the cadets. This regulation is as follows:

123. All combinations, under any pretext whatever, are strictly prohibited. Any cadet who in concert with others shall adopt any measure, under pretense of procuring a redress of grievances; or who shall sign any paper, or enter any written or verbal agreement with a view of violating or evading any regulation of the institute; or who shall combine with, concert with, or join others in expressing disapprobation or censure of the conduct of another cadet; or be the medium of conveying such censure or disapprobation; or who shall concert with, combine with, or join others in doing any act contrary to the rules of good order and subordination; or endeavor to persuade others to do the same, shall be dismissed.

The Board of Visitors gave this matter its most earnest and careful consideration; committees upon behalf of the class were admitted to its presence, and their statements heard and considered. They were informed that it would be necessary for every cadet who had signed the paper above referred to, by a written communication to inform the board that he regretted having taken that step, and desired to have his name erased therefrom. After this, such a paper was presented to the board signed by a large majority of the third class, and setting forth that those who had not signed it, had not done so because of an oath they had taken not to append their signatures to such communication. The cadet committee, who presented this last named paper, was informed that it would be accepted by the board as to those who had signed it, but would not be received as to those who had refused to sign it, and thereupon the committee asked to withdraw it, consent to which was given, and nothing further was heard from the third class or its representatives relative to the matter. A resolution was adopted by the Board of Visitors providing that each cadet should have ten days from this date within which to present to the Superintendent a paper signed by him embodying the requirements hereinbefore mentioned.

It must be apparent to all sober-minded and reflecting people that the board is actuated by the single purpose of perpetuating the existence of the Institute and the continuance of its usefulness. Its history since its organization forms a part of that of the Commonwealth and its influence has been exerted in every department of life. During the civil war its graduates were found in every branch of the military service of the Confederate States, from the general in command of a division to the private in the ranks.

In these days of greater liberty and license to youth, with a relaxation of the rules of conduct which were formerly applied, the Institute conducted and administered as it should be, stands out in bolder prominence than ever before. CLASS ORGANIZATION is not recognized by the authorities of the Institute, for if the cadets by organization and combination could demand and secure immunity from the rules of discipline and conduct prescribed for them, then the Institute could not be conducted in the manner and for the purpose for which it was created, and it would lose the essential feature of its creation.

The Board of Visitors is composed of eleven members, among them the Adjutant General and Superintendent of Public Instruction; all of whom were present at the meeting just ended save the Superintendent of Public Instruction. Eight of the members of the Board are graduates of the Institute; they have trod the same path that the present cadets are treading. Can it not be assumed that they feel as deep, if not a greater, interest in this institution than those who have not passed through its course? That they experience a livelier interest in the real or imaginary trials of the cadets than those who know nothing of the life of a cadet? That they have more information with respect to the conditions existing at the Institute than those who have no knowledge of or information upon the subject?

They realize that these young men are now standing upon the verge of manhood, at the very gate of life, with all of its trials, hopes, ambitions, successes, and, alas, disappointments, and that the path to this entrance if attended with self-denial, application, obedience and submission to constituted authorities will be a valuable preparation for the struggle which is the lot of man. In this crisis of the affairs of the Institute the Board of Visitors should receive the support of the public as well as of those more deeply interested in its welfare.

JEWS in Russia will receive hundreds of thousands of dollars from their brethren in the United States. Nearly every large city had its humanity meeting yesterday and added to the great contributions from these gatherings were many individual gifts, among them that of Andrew Carnegie, who gave $10,000. Philadelphia gave nearly $25,000; Baltimore, $10,250; Cincinnati, $25,000; Chicago, $13,000; St. Louis, $15,000; San Francisco, $7,595, and so on down the line. Trenton, N. J., turned in $400 and Wilmington, Del., $500. Scores are yet to be heard from and there is no definite knowledge yet as to where the total will reach. Of the nearly $25,000 subscribed in Philadelphia $19,100 was turned in in twenty minutes. The recent bloody scenes in Russia, it is believed, exceed those through which the Hebrew race passed in ancient times, and they have naturally brought forth protests from all civilized countries. The end is not yet, as fierce men in the garb of Christianity are seemingly bent upon exterminating the descendants of Abraham who unfortunately dwell in far-away Russia. The lamentations of ten thousand Israelites in London yesterday and their appeal to Christian people to stop this wholesale slaughter were pathetic.

A Polish boy in Pittsburg, Pa., has recently died from lockjaw superinduced by a severe beating he received from a fellow pupil at an institution of learning; another youth has just died from a fraternity initiation into one of the societies of the Episcopal Theological Seminary of Kenyon, Ohio; another unfortunate pupil was lashed to a railroad track in a neighboring State recently, and Midshipman Branch was killed in a fight at Annapolis. Such occurrences are a reflection upon modern manners and customs, and examples should be made of ruffians who enter such institutions and are guilty of such crimes.

A MOB a few nights ago broke open the jail at Henderson, Texas, and lynched three negroes who had been arrested on suspicion of committing a murder. They were strung up on the evidence of another negro who made a statement in order to escape lynching. Mob law is a dangerous recourse and occasionally we read of innocent people being lynched. Possibly the mob in executing three men on the unsupported testimony of another terrified negro made a mistake.

Diplomats here, particularly those representing the European courts, are watching with interest, not untouched with cynicism, the events connected with the visit to this country of Prince Louis of Battenberg and his squadron of warships. They recognize in it a part of the game of world-politics which is now being played by the British government and they are curious to see what counter moves are to follow. It is, perhaps, significant that they all regard Germany as the antagonist in the game. Great Britian's purpose in sending Prince Louis and his fleet on a friendly visit to this country just at this time, was, in the opinion of these observers, to promote the impression that there exists between England and the United States at least a moral alliance, if not a secret understanding, the object of which is to maintain the peace of the world and incidentall advance the trade policies of the two countries, especiall the "open door" in the far East. Prince Louis's visit here was planned at about the same time that the new treaty of alliance between Great Britian and Japan was being negotiated.

Secretary of the Treasury Shaw gave out the following statement this morning: "Secretary Shaw has not yet decided to come to the relief of the money market. He authorizes the statement that he will not interfere unless convinced that business interests are likely to suffer. Thus far no productive business interest, manufacturer, transporter, merchant, or banker has asked it. He will not come to the relief of speculation. Should any business concern be denied deserved credit, at reasonable market rates the Secretary wants to know the facts. He believes the majority of the New York loans are still made at or below six per cent. Call money and speculation long time money, in other words market money, as distinguished from customer's money, is higher."

The U. S. Supreme Court today in the case of Tampa Florida Water Works Company against the city of Tampa, affirmed the decision of the court below upholding the right of the Tampa council to modify water rates under the company's contract. Justices Peckham and Brown dissented, holding that the modification in question constituted an impairment of the obligation of contract.

The Navy Department has received a preliminary report of the speed trial of the battle-hip Rhode Island off the New England coast last week. During her four hour sustained test, the new ship turned up 19.01 knots per hour, which is simply within the maxim speed agreed upon with her constructors.

The State Department this morning received a cable dispatch from Minister Squiers to the effect that two cases of yellow fever had developed in Havana.

In his opening address at the tenth annual meeting the National Association of Presidents of State Universities, Chancellor E. Benjamin Andrews, of the University of Nebraska and president of the association, took a determined stand for football as it is played today in American colleges. Football, he said, excels in that the sound physical education reaches beyond the body and developes extraordinary intellectual traits.

In the case of Marvin vs. Trout, the U. S. Supreme Court today upheld the validity of the Ohio statutes which permit any resident of the State to recover money lost at gambling, no matter by whom lost.

Tangible property permanently located and employed outside of the State cannot be taxed by the State of Kentucky, is the gist of a decision handed down by the U. S. Supreme Court today. The case was that of the Union Refrigerating Transit Company against the State of Kentucky.

John Kelly, colored, a messenger at the White House, died this morning at the Freedmen's Hospital while undergoing an operation.

Jumped From the Steamer.

Several hours after the steamer Hartford arrived Saturday at Hartford, Ct., from New York, Chief of Police Gunn was informed of the suicide of Capt. John C. Rulon, of Exmore, Va., who jumped from his stateroom window while the boat was passing through Long Island Sound Friday night.

The reason for delay in notifying the authorities after Captain Rulon's clothing and two pathetic farewell letters were found was that the transportation company officials belived he had left the steamer at New York city.

There will be nothing to identify his body if it is found but two letters, addressed to his brothers, Stephen D. and Edward Rulon, of Exmore, announcing his intention to commit suicide. The letters indicate that the cause was the advance in rates in the Royal Arcanum, in which he had $3,000 insurance, and which he would be unable to continue. He appeals to the brothers to care for "Blanch," the insurance beneficiary, who is either his wife or daughter.

Besides the letters the steward discovered in the stateroom, the window of which was raised, a coat and vest, and in the pockets two $2 bills and an inspector's license, issued in the district of New York, March 29, 1902, stating that Capt. John C. Rulon is a skillful master of ocean steam and sail vessels of over 700 tons. His watch was also found.

Where the Blame Belongs.

At a banquet of the Chicago Merchants' Club Saturday night, Sir Cheng Tung Liang, the Chinese minister to the United States, was the guest of honor and delivered the principal address of the evening. He discussed commercial possibilities between the United States and China.

The minister, while speaking in the most courteous manner, and frequently evoking the applause of his listeners, laid indirectly at the door of the United States the responsibility for the boycott recently instituted in China against American goods. He asserted that the numerous cases of hardship and uujust treatment which had been imposed by over-zealous American officials on the immigration of Chinese of the exempt classes had so worked on the feelings of the Chinese nation that the regrettable boycott followed.

Church Dedicated.

The dedication in Portsmouth yesterday of the new St. Paul's Catholic Church was an event of wide interest. The new building occupies the site of the old church, which was destroyed in the great conflagration of March, 1897. It is a gothic structure of North Carolina granite, having a 200-foot spire of steel. The interior decorations are the most ornate of any Southern Catholic church. The building cost $100,000, and of this amount the congregation has already raised $80,000. The dedication exercises were conducted by the Right Rev. A. Van de Vyver, bishop of Richmond, assisted by Rev. Thomas J Brady, who has been pastor of the church for 35 years; Rev. Joseph Frioli, of Staunton, formerly of Portsmouth; Rev. Edward Walsh and Rev. M. A. Irwin. There were many visiting priests from other cities.

The sermon of dedication was preached by the Very Rev. A. P. Doyle, rector of the apostolic mission house of the Catholic University of America, at Washington. Vast congregations attended all the services of the day.

The Fox Hunters.

The Grafton hounds met at 7 o'clock Saturday morning at Mountsville, 12 miles from Upperville. Only a fair field was out. Hounds were cast into the woods and a find was made almost at once. The fox was viewed by a farmer, only to be carried away a few minutes later by another fox crossing the trail. The hounds went away for 40 minutes, when they disappeared, the field being unable to hold the hot pace.

The only accident was a fall by one of the riders, whose name is not known, who broke his nose over a stone wall.

The hunting colony has been added to by the arrival of Mrs. Robert Perkins, Miss Bird, Charles Bird and Mrs. Sturgis, all of Boston, at Middlesex headquarters. James Roosevelt, member of the Grafton Hunt, arrived Friday night and is at Grafton headquarters.

Movius at a meeting held yesterday, when the question of appointing a substitute judge in the place of James K. Maddux, of Warrenton, who has resigned, also came up. It was decided that Mr. Smith, master of Grafton, could not appoint another judge, and that unless Mr. Maddux returned the two remaining judges should make the award. Mr. Smith will endeavor to persuade Mr. Maddux to return in time for the final meeting of the judges, which will probably take place Tuesday night, when the winner of the purse of $2,000 and the Townsend Cup will be named.

Affairs in St. Petersburg.

About 2 o'clock this morning a crowd of roughs attempted a disturbance in the Nevsky Prospect by starting an attack on intellectuals. The police who had spent the night on watch, concealed in yards and houses, easily dispersed the would-be rioters. Alfonso attended the match, and, on arriving on the grounds, found Duro's balloon unguarded. The king jumped into the basket and began throwing out all the ballast with the intention of taking a soar by himself. One of his aides de camp, who noticed what the king was doing, ran up and broke the basket and damaged the balloon, compelling Alfonso to abandan his rash project. Duro now demands that Alfonso shall settle for the damages done the balloon.

The plan will follow closely the limitations of the Mueller law, and it is said the ultimate cost will be $100,000,000 to be raised on credit and repaid out of street car earnings. The system will take in all parts of the city, but the first step planned is to secure a test of the Mueller law certificates on a line on which the franchises have expired. Many aldermen who formerly voted with the Mayor have broken away from him. While the Mayor's ordinance will hardly be passed it is possible his plan for testing the Mueller law may be adopted, and placed on the ballot at the elections in April.

New York Mayoralty.

New York, Nov. 13.—District Attorney Jerome's efforts to catch the "man higher up," took a new turn this morning, when Assistant District Attorneys Sandford and Perkins instituted John Doe proceedings in the Sixth, Fourteenth and Twenty-ninth Assembly districts in the election fraud cases. These proceedings are said to have resulted from new evidence that has been obtained by Superintendent of Elections Morgan's men, who brought several witnesses to the District Attorney's office this morning. Absolute secrecy was maintained regarding these cases, as it was intimated that arrests would be made before the day was over. The legal battle between lawyers representing Mr. Hearst and Mayor McClellan will begin with the taking up of the returns from the First district. Injunctions and court orders of various kinds are expected from both sides. The grand jury this afternoon returned eight indictments for illegal voting. Six of these persons indicted have already been arrested, having been taken in custody on election day. Bench warrants were issued for the other two indicted. The grand jury, it is understood, has ordered seven other indictments drawn, but no one of prominence is involved.

Accident in a Shaft.

Johannesburg, Nov. 13.—An accident in the deep verical shaft of a mine at Driefontain, owing to the flooding of the shaft, has resulted in the drowning of one white man and sixty-seven natives. A fissure formed in the rock formation sixty feet from the bottom of the shaft and the pumps were swept away leaving the victims helpless.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 13.—The money stringency overshadows everything else, and has caused heavy selling. Prices sin e the opening sustained material declines, ranging from 1 to 3½ per cent., in a number of the active issues, with greater declines in high priced specialties. London traded on both sides to a moderate extent. There is a good deal of discussion in regard to what might be called the gold import point, and it is claimed by some large handlers of money that, with the break in exchange today, sterling is very close now to the point at which gold can be imported in connection with the high rates for money.

The investigation of the Philadelphia authorities into the strange death in that city of aged Margaretta Todd, the rich New York widow, is at an end. With no new clews upon which to work, and no evidence to show that the old woman was slain, it was semi-officially announced at police headquarters Saturday night, after almost two weeks of investigating, that so far as the local authorities are concerned, the inquiry is over.

Twenty detectives made a sensational descent Saturday afternoon upon five offices on Tremont street, Boston, where, it is alleged, illegal operations have been performed on an extensive scale, and, although the raids did not result in any arrests, the police found considerable material which they think will aid them in the future. Their information also indicates that Boston has become the headquarters for these illegal practitioners, who bring their patients there from all parts of the country.

Student riots at Madrid are assuming serious proportions. The council of the university has decided to close the institution unless the disorder is immediately stopped. The disorders are the outgrowth of a decision of the faculty of the University of Madrid expelling a number of students for insubordination. The entire student membership made common cause with those who were expelled, and appealed to the universities throughout Spain, causing a general strike of students and the consequent disorders.

During the absence of the private watchman on guard at Schumann's Sons' jewelry store at Broadway and Twenty-second street, New York, thieves entered the place yesterday and carried off $10,000 worth of silverware. The robbers drove to the store in a handsome carriage with a coachman in livery, and having noted the departure of the watchman, entered the front door with false keys. The presence of the carriage attracted no attention, and half an hour later the robbers came out, placed their plunder in the carriage, and drove away.

Marshal Miles arrived in time to rescue Hipple and Allen, but the other two men were dead when the officer reached their cell. Before the discovery of the blaze some boys heard Allen saying that Buttrick was trying to fire the jail.

The Electric Railway.

The electric railway company is making arrangements for connecting the road with the new highway bridge over the Potomac. For several weeks past the company has had a force of hands employed in building a temporary trestle from the bridge over the Columbia pike, near Arlington junction, in a direct line across the swamp at Alexander Island to the Virginia end of the new Highway bridge, and this trestle will be used by the dinky trains in making the high embankment over the swamp, and the stream which flows through the swamp will be bridged. McMillan & McDermott, the contractors for the building of the embankment, are prepared to start work at once, and have brought a steam shovel to Four Mile run with which to begin the cutting down of the high hill to the west of the railway tracks in order to obtain material for the fill. A double-track railway is to be laid on it. This fill will eliminate the ugly long trestle just north of Arlington Junction and will give a complete double track from Alexandria to Washington.

The work of reducing the grade at Mount Vernon starts at a point about a mile north of the station and a gradual rise is made in order to do away with the steep grade. The trestle over Little Hunting creek will be raised eighteen feet and at Mount Vernon the track will be lowered about four feet. This work when completed will make the grade easy to climb and will save time and wear on the cars.

Among other improvements to be made to the plant of the company is the enlarging of the car barn and machine shop at Four-Mile run. Both buildings are to be enlarged to about twice the present capacity and are to be fitted with new machinery for the quick repair of disabled cars.

The company has acquired about fifty acres of land in the vicinity of Four-Mile run, and it is stated that this will be used for a picnic ground and pleasure park, and that more car equipment will be provided for taking care of increasing traffic. It is also stated that the railway company will run the park as a temperance resort. The improvements being made by the company will, it is stated, cost nearly half a million of dollars.

It will cost upwards of $1,000 and is expected to be in place next fall.

Slight Fire.

About eight o'clock yesterday morning some ladies while passing J. Bernheimer & Co's store on the southwest corner of King and Lee streets had their attention attracted by a bright light within. They notified acting Lieutenant Roberts, of the police force, who entered the store and found that a gas jet and globe, used for a drop light, had in some way broke its fastenings and glided upward nearly to the ceiling. The officer could not turn off the flow of gas, from the fact that there was no key to the pipe, but Mr. Samuel Cuvillier came to the rescue with a pair of pinchers and soon stopped the flow and prevented what might have resulted in a serious fire.

The alarm of fire shortly after six o'clock this morning was caused by the explosion of an oil lamp in a store on the north side of Prince street, between Lee and Union. The damage was slight.

Deaths of Mrs. Wise.

Mrs. Alice Wise, widow of Peter Wise, died at her home, southeast corner of Prince and Henry streets, last night The deceased had been suffering from an attack of grip during the past week. Mrs. Wise was a daughter of Major Wm. Nutt, of Alexandria county. She was a member of Christ Church for many years, and throughout life was a consistent and faithful christian. She was thoughtful of others, especially those surrounded by chill penury, and her kindly acts in relieving distress were numerous and unostentatious. Her many friends and acquaintances will sincerely regret to hear of her death, as will others to whom she was a friend indeed.

Colored Methodists.

The Virginia Conference of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church closed an interesting session at Front Royal yesterday. Bishop Williams, of Georgia, presided. Many ministerial transfers were made. The conference was redistricted and three presiding elders' districts were made instead of two, as heretofore. Robinson, of this city, was appointed presiding elder of the new district. The conference endorsed the colored Christian Congress to be held in Washington, D. C., January 25, 1906.

Stoned a Car.

A colored man from Washington who refuses to give his name, is locked up at the station house charged with disorderly conduct and throwing stones at a car. The man boarded an electric train in the county for Washington, but refused to give up his ticket, though he gave Conductor Bell 5 cents. When the man had ridden as far as the 5 cents would pay the conductor told him he must pay his fare or get off, whereupon he produced a ticket which he gave the conductor and demanded the return of his money. The conductor told him that he could not comply with his demand as he had registered the money on the indicator. The man then became so disorderly that he was put off the car near the Long bridge, whereupon he threw several stones at Conductor Bell, striking the car and narrowly missing some of the passengers. The car was stopped and the man was arrested and brought to this city and will be given a hearing tomorrow.

Fined Twenty Dollars.

Late Saturday afternoon a negro youth named Joseph Fields appeared on Royal street, between King and Cameron, armed with a pistol. He is said to have been bent upon killing a white man employed at one of the glass works. The latter, it seemed, had offended him. Constable A. J. Payne, who was in Mr. George Brown's barber shop at the time, ran after Field. He intercepted him near Cameron street, disarmed him and carried the darkey to the station house. He was arraigned in the Police Court this morning and was fined $20 by Justice Caton.

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her, so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." A Kinsman of the Washington's Dead

DEATH OF POSEY MARSHALL, ESQ.

He died at his home in Henderson, Ky., Oct. 30th, 1905, aged 40 years, after a short illness of pneumonia.

Mr. Marshall was a son of the late Wm. J. Marshall, a respected and prominent citizen of Henderson. His mother was Miss Lucy Frances Posey, a woman in every way lovely, daughter of Wm. Thornton Posey, who was a son of Capt. John Posey, and Lucy Francis Thornton, the daughter of Maj. George Thornton, of Fredericksburg, and his wife, Mary Alexander, daughter of John Alexander and Lucy Thornton, of King George. Maj. George Thornton, the father of Lucy Frances, the wife of Capt. John Posey, was the son of Miss Gregory, the daughter of Mildred Washington, aunt and godmother of the President. Mary Alexander, as widow of Maj. Geo. Thornton, married the distinguished Gen. Thos. Posey, who was a Posey only in name and by adoption. Gen. Posey's son, John, his only child by his first wife, Martha, daughter of Gen. Sampson Mathews, of Augusta county, married his step-sister, Lucy Frances Thornton, named for her two grandmothers, Lucy Thornton and Frances Gregory, and moved to Kentucky, and a large and respectable line of descendants has come from them.

Mr. Marshall leaves two sons and a widow, who was Miss Sally Taylor, daughter of Dr. Taylor, a physician of Henderson, a kinsman of both President Taylor and President Madison. Mr. Marshall was a general favorite and had not an enemy. He was an energetic farmer and left his family in good circumstances. His early death is greatly deplored.

Church Work in Fairfax County.

The work of restoring old Pohick Church, the Rev. Everard Meade, rector, is to be continued shortly. Some money is in hand to put in part of the pews. This will be done during the winter. The work has been impeded because a sufficiency of funds has not yet been contributed. As this is one of the oldest and most interesting churches, not only in Virginia, but in the entire United States, being the place of worship of George Washington, two or three miles from Mt. Vernon, surely this money should be forthcoming from the many friends and descendants of those who helped to establish the Church in this land in long ago. As it is intended to make this work of restoration as nearly perfect as possible, it will be under the direction of one of the best architects. It is designed to combine the necessary comfort in seating arrangements for the congregation with the antique designs.

Two very interesting missions have recently been held in this (Truro) parish—one by Rev. John R. Matthews, which lasted five days. Bible readings were conducted each morning, and in the evening the forceful add helpful sermons of which this man of God is capable drew large congregations, the members of which were greatly helped.

During the second week in October, Archdeacon Tyler conducted a mission, dividing his time between Pohick church and Olivet chapel. His solemn prayer services, good sermons and helpful intercourse with the people will result in much good. As the outcome of these missions, a number of candidate are awaiting confirmation.—[Southern Churchman.

Three Negroes Lynched.

A mob 200 strong, at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, broke into the jail at Henderson, Texas, by battering down the doors and overpowering the jail officers, and took from the cells five colored men who were being held on suspicion of having murdered Elias Howell white, last Thursday, ten miles from Henderson. Three of the prisoners, John Roose, Robert Askew, and Henry Schorrow, were left hanging to a sycamore tree in the public square. The other two only witnessed the murder of Howell, and were released. The lynching was done so quietly that people living within 100 yards of the scene knew nothing about it until daylight. Will Williams, one of the men who was set free, was placed upon a dry goods box and forced to tell the mob about the murder of Howell. The triple hanging followed the confession by Williams.

Conditions in Finland.

Helsingfors, Finland, Nov. 13.—The workmen's and socialists' police force have decided not to disband, and in order to protect themselves against them the citizens have organized a force of 2,500 volunteers into a police force. A socialist propaganda is being conducted throughout Finland demanding a single chamber in the system of government and the continued closing of the spirit trade.

The garrison at the fortress in Sveaborg has mutined, the Russian soldiers demanding better treatment, free choice of books, and a furlough for soldiers having served their time. Their demands were partially granted, but the conflict is still maintained.

Another Torso Found.

On one of the city dumps in Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday afternoon was discovered by children a human torso, including the thorax and shoulders, but devoid of head, arms and legs. The identity of the person is shrouded in mystery. There was not a shred of clothing attached to the torso. It was turned over to the police and removed to the morgue. The most striking discovery was a bullet wound in the right side, which the coroner thinks caused death. The postmortem held by Coroner Siegelstein showed that the body was that of a murdered man. It also developed that the body had been embalmed. The theory that the body had been cut up in a medical school and then discarded, thence being hauled to the "dump" was scouted by the coroner. The body showed curious marks of mutilation in that the head and arms had evidently been pulled off or cut rudely. The coroner holds that it is the portion of a body of a man, and that his weight was probably 140 pounds. As to his age it was not possible to tell.

Southern Soldiers' Statue on Lake Erie.

The Robert Patton Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, of Cincinnati, has had a high honor paid it by Sir Moses Ezekiel, of Rome, Italy, by his offer to furnish free, a model for a bronze statute heroic size of a Southern soldier, "as he really was," to be placed on Johnson's Island, Ohio, in Lake Erie. The value of Sir Moses Ezekiel's assistance in this matter will be almost incalculable as he is a sculptor of wide renown, beside the honor accorded the chapter of having his work in the cemetery. He was a soldier of the Confederacy, in the Army of Northern Virginia, serving the entire four years. He left his alma mater, University of Virginia, to enlist in 1861, and made a gallant record, remaining in the army till Lee surrendered. The Ezekiels are an old and honored Richmond family.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

When you want a plessant physic try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no griping or no unpleasant effect. Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Nature Needs But Little.

Nature needs only a Little Early Riser now and then to keep the bowels clean, the liver active, and the system free from bile, headaches, constipation, etc. The famous little pills "Early Risers" are pleasant in effect and perfect in action. They never gripe or sicken, but tone and strengthen the liver and kidneys. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

But Few Are Free.

But few people are entirely free from indigestion at this season of the year. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is not only the best remedy to use because it digests what you eat but because it also enables the digestive apparatus to assimilate and transform all foods into tissue-building blood. Kodol relieves sour stomach, heart burn, belching, and all forms of Indigestion. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Bookmakers' Chances.

Layers of odds at the race track are prone to circulate tales of their enormous losses upon certain races, but it is seldom that a loss on a run may be shown, for it has been figured by experts that a skillful layer makes a book showing a percentage of 25 in his favor, by which he is bound to retain at least one-fourth of his takings. Large losses happen occasionally when an unexpected victory pays 40 or 50 to 1, but, as, a general thing, unless the bookmaker deliberately gambles with chance he "makes books" so that he will show a profit on each race. A skillful bookie can so manipulate the odds that at no point does he stand to lose on a race, and, like his brother of the gambling house, his profit lies in this percentage in his favor. Even where gambling games are run without recourse to fraud the odds in favor of the dealer are never less than 20 per cent.

A Woman Never Does.

A loafer on the street, whose wife was probably at home getting out a neighbor's washing to make money to buy the children's shoes, asked a busy man the other day if he ever saw a baldheaded woman.

"No, I never did," replied the busy man. "And I never saw a woman waltzing around town in her shirt sleeves with a cigar in her teeth and running into every saloon she saw. Neither did I ever see a woman sitting all day at a street corner on a dry goods box telling people how the secretary of the treasury should run the national finances. I have never seen a woman go fishing with a bottle in her pocket, sit on the bank all day and go home drunk at night. Nor have I ever seen a woman yank off her coat and say she could lick any man in town. God bless 'em, the women are not built that way."—Kansas City Journal.

The Game of Whist.

Whist is thought to be of English origin and a development of the game trump, or triumph, which was played in England in the time of Henry VIII. Whist was not mentioned by Shakespeare or the writers of his day. Its earliest record is in the poems of Taylor, the water poet (1621). It is spoken of in the second edition (1680) of Cotton's "Compleat Gamester" as "the game of whist, so called from the silence that is to be observed in the play," but as whisk seems to have been its original name, according to some authorities, this derivation is not assured. The game was at first nine up. This was changed to ten up early in the eighteenth century, and in 1864 the experiment of dividing the game into half, which was first tried as early as 1785, was generally adopted by the clubs.

How Swallows Build Nests.

Swallows and house martins build by sticking together pellets of prepared road mud. Most of the material is obtained from the drying puddles on the high roads. If not mixed with anything else the tendency of these pellets would be to crumble when dry. But the swallow tribe is supplied with a mucous secretion which enables it to gum the particles together. The swallows' nests, from which the Chinese birds' nest soup is made, are constructed of this mucous matter only. An Indian swallow, which builds little boat shaped nests against the trunks of lofty trees, practically makes them of dried saliva.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Worse Than a Battle.

The Rev. Dr. Joseph Parker of the City temple, London, once had a collection made, to the announcement of which he added with deep pathos, "Widows and orphans will not be expected to contribute." A few Sundays later there was another collection for the same object. "This time," said the preacher, "nobody will be exempt, for no battle ever made so many widows and orphans as the announcement made on the previous Sunday."

Bathing the Eyes.

Bathing the eyes with equal parts of witch hazel and water is very restful to them, or bathe them with warm water in which are dissolved a pinch of powdered borax and two or three drops of spirits of camphor. A soft linen cloth, used for no other purpose, is better than a sponge for bathing the eyes. The eyes should be washed every night to remove any dust that might have gathered on the lids during the day.

He Bit.

He (at the window)—It's very cheerful within, but awfully disagreeable without. She (coyly)—Without what? He (inspired)—Why, without you, darling.

And a few weeks later a furniture installment house was called upon to open a new account.

The Danger.

"Do you think, doctor, that indolence necessarily tends to obesity?"

"Um—not necessarily, perhaps, but when people do nothing but take up room they are quite likely to find it difficult—er—not to overdo, don't you know!"

Cause For Pity.

We hear much about broken hearts in this world, but the lists of broken brained geniuses is greater. Almost every day we have to pity the man who carries his mind in a sling.—Toledo Blade.

The Hand That Rules.

She—It is comforting to me to know that woman's hand rules the world. He—Yes, but you must not forget that man's hand holds it much of the time.

Pointless.

Scribbles—You sit on every joke I submit to you. Editor—Well, if they had any point to them I wouldn't.
